to be lodged and proved against the estates at a meeting of creditors in due course. Only creditors who prove claims will receive a dividend from the estate. Please note that faxed or copies of claim forms cannot be accepted, so kindly return the original signed and commissioned claim form to me. The completed forms can be mailed to me at the PO Box 1337 Fontainebleau. 2032 or the completed forms can also be delivered to Reagus c/o 1st floor, 292 Surrey Avenue, Randburg.

You are also please required to attach to the claim form proof of payment of the capital amounts invested by you in the scheme, failing which, your claim may be rejected. As regards completion of the forms please note the following

- Page 1 must be completed and signed by the person claiming to be a creditor. Full names and address of the creditor must be completed by the creditor. The amount of the claim is determined by completion of page 2 of the forms.
- Page 2 headed up "Statement of Account". Under the section "details of Sales" you are to write the date or dates of your investment. Under "amount" you are to show the full amount of your investment as deposited with the company. (Proof of this payment must be attached to the claim form please). Under the section headed "details of Payments received ..." you need to complete all payments you received from the company including return payments and capital repayments. You then need to add up the totals of the payments received and this must be deducted from the amount you invested. For example if you invested R100 000 and received 12 payments of returns @R1 000 per month (Total R12 000) plus a capital repayment of R50 000 then your claim would be R100 000 less R12 000 less R50 000 = R38 000.00. This is the amount you take forward to page 1 as the amount you can claim.
- The Power of Attorney form is not compulsory. The form simply allows me to appoint one person to represent all the creditors who wish to be represented at a meeting of creditors. If you choose not to complete the form your claim will still be submitted and proved at a meeting of creditors.
- The directors resolution is only applicable if the claim is being lodged by a Company, Closed Corporation or Trust (or any other legal body or entity) The form must then be completed by the board of the entity claiming to be a creditor authorising the person who signs page 1 to do so on behalf of the claimant. If the claimant is a Trust or deceased estate a certified copy of the letters of appointment of the Trustees / Executor are required to be attached to the claim.
- The last page is not compulsory but to facilitate payments of dividends when they are due to be paid in terms of a confirmed liquidation account. The creditors banking details need to be included on this page.

Yours faithfully

M.L. Stewart
Joint Liquidator
